

Marie YOUNG-BRUN

Maison des Sciences Économiques, 75013 Paris
marie.youngbrun@psemail.eu
Personal website

FIELDS OF INTEREST

---

Climate and environmental economics, with a focus on distributional impacts from both climate change and mitigation policies

WORKING PAPERS

---

Climate change damages on labor and capital, inequality, and the social cost of carbon with S. Feindt (PhD candidate at MCC)

The political economy of carbon taxation with vertical and horizontal inequality

EDUCATION

---

- 2019 - PhD in ECONOMICS, Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne/ Paris School of Economics/ CIRED
Subject Distributional effects of climate policy
Supervisors : Stéphane ZUBER and Aurélie MÉJEAN
- 2017-2019 Master's Degree in ECONOMICS (with highest honours), Paris School of Economics
2019 Thesis: "Adaptation, Altruism and the Long-term Climate Issue" | Advisor: Stéphane ZUBER
- 2017 BA in ECONOMICS Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

SKILLS

---

SOFTWARE Python, R, Julia, LaTeX, Stata, Bash
LANGUAGES French (mothertongue), Spanish (mothertongue), English (fluent), German (intermediary)

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

---

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| Fall 2021   | Visiting researcher , MCC ( Mercator Research Institute on Global Commons and Climate Change )Hosting Scholar: Prof. Matthias KALKUHL. |
| 2019        | Research assistant at CEPREMAPRole of trust in political polarization  |
| Summer 2018 | Research intern at URBAN LABS, University of ChicagoEffects of lead paint regulation on the housing market                      |

SEMINAR PRESENTATIONS

---

- 2022 Doctirissimes conference (Paris)
2021 CIRED PhD Seminar (Paris), PSE Regulation and Environment (Paris), MCC internal seminar (Berlin)
2020 PSE PhD Informal Seminar (Paris)

TEACHING AND OTHER ACTIVITIES

---

- Spring 2019 and 2020    Teaching Assistant, 48h/year, Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne
Undergraduate course "Markets, Equilibrium and Optimum", Prof E. del Mercato
- 2020 -                      PhD student representative at the Doctoral School (ED465)

SCHOLARSHIPS

---

- 2021    PSE PhD International Mobility Grant
- 2019-2022    3-year CNRS scholarship linked to international research project CHIPS
(Climate Change Impacts and Policies in Heterogeneous Societies)